COLLEGE OF EUROPE

What is it?

- 'One College, two campuses': in Bruges and in Natolin (Warsaw);
- Established in Bruges in 1949 in the wake of the first Congress of the European Movement in The Hague in 1948;
- Idea to establish an institute where university graduates from many different European countries (and beyond) could study and live together in preparation for careers related to European cooperation and integration;
- After the end of the 'Cold War', establishment of the Natolin campus in Warsaw to widen the perspective on and embrace European integration as a whole;
- International community of more than 50 nationalities;
- Bilingual institution: English – French;
- Extensive network of alumni in Brussels and beyond (16.000 alumni).

Practicing intercultural skills on a daily basis

By working together in an international community of students, academic assistants, faculty and staff members from all corners of the continent and beyond, students experience Europe first-hand and benefit from a wide range of teaching methods and from challenging teamwork and negotiation exercises.

10

MONTHS

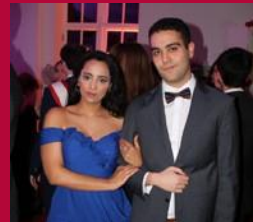

Cutting-edge education

Renown professors, small-group teaching and a challenging mix of practical skills, language training as well as international projects and competitions define the very varied academic programmes. Prominent world leaders and decision-makers are regular guest speakers and discuss with students about European and international affairs.
