

Erasmus+ Cooperation Seminar Washington DC

The Erasmus+ Cooperation Seminar, organized by Austria's Agency for Education and Internationalization (OeAD), offers the chance to enhance cross-Atlantic collaboration between Austrian and US higher education institutions. The goal of the event is, thus, to provide a solid framework for networking and exchange of ideas and projects within the field of international mobility in Erasmus+.

Program

Tuesday, May 30, 2023 (Austrian Embassy, 3524 International Court NW, Washington DC 20008)

Registration to the seminar starts at 8:30 a.m.

- 9:00 a.m.
- Opening remarks
Johannes Aigner, Director, Austrian Cultural Forum Washington
Jakob Calice, Managing Director, OeAD
 - Aims of the seminar and introduction
 - Overview of the Austrian higher education system
Gerhard Volz, Head International Cooperation in Higher Education, OeAD
 - Erasmus+ | What's in the name? A brief overview
Martin Gradl, Head Erasmus+ Higher Education, OeAD
 - International Erasmus+ Mobility in focus
Anna Kuprian, Erasmus+ Higher Education, OeAD
 - Q&A Session
 - How to succeed?
Iris Waringer, IMC University of Applied Sciences Krems

Carolina Coronado-Park, University of Northern Iowa

Gordana Mirchikj, Education USA
- 10:30 a.m. Tea / Coffee
- 11:00 a.m.
- Let's join forces!
Presentation of participating universities and matchmaking session
- 12:30 p.m. Lunch
- 1:30 p.m.
- Matchmaking session (continuation) and next steps
- 2:50 p.m. Closing of the event

The seminar addresses Austrian and US university representatives interested in developing or intensifying their bilateral institutional partnerships. There are no restrictions in terms of subject or study levels.