The background of the slide is a photograph of the University of Graz. It features a large, ornate, light-colored building with many windows and a green roof. In the foreground, a group of students is walking on a paved path. The image is partially obscured by a semi-transparent white rectangle containing the text. Green foliage is visible in the foreground and background, framing the scene.

We research.
We shape the future.

© MarijaKanizaj/Unsplash

Austria in the of Europe – Graz in the Spotlight

Austria - located in the southern part of Central Europe

Capital: Vienna

Population: 9,132 Millions

Graz: Capitol of Styria – the green heart of Austria vibrant student city with around 300,000 inhabitants

University of Graz – Facts & Figures

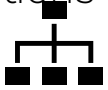

- Founded 1585
- Scientific staff: 3.300 (52% female and 24% international)
- Administrative staff: 1.500 (65% female and 9% international)
- Students: 30.000 (62% female and 19% international)
- Beginners: 4.000 (64% female and 29% international)
- Over 120 study programmes
- Graduates: 2.800 (66% female)

Short Facts

Worldwide network with more than 500 university institutions

Member of international institutional networks (COIMBRA GROUP, UTRECHT NETWORK, etc.)

5 strategic partner institutions (Germany, Slovenia, Canada, USA and China)

11 different Joint Master Programmes

- Sustainable Development
- Jewish Studies
- Gender Studies
- European Studies
- English and American Studies
- Southeast European Studies
- Cultural Sociology
- Translation (Slovene, German and English)
- Empirical Economics
- Political, Economic and Legal Philosophy
- Biotechnology

Teri School of Advanced Studies – cooperation since 2013

Mobility partner in the Master's programme Sustainable Development for additional mobility.
Consortium itself made up of the universities of

- University of Leipzig (Germany)
- Utrecht University (Netherlands)
- Hiroshima University (Japan)
- University of Basel (Switzerland)
- University of Venice (Italy)
- University of Graz (Austria)

