THE OeAD

Agency for Education and Internationalisation

The OeAD advises, supports and connects people and institutions in education, science, research and culture with its future-oriented programmes.

As an agency of the Republic of Austria the OeAD thus contributes to inclusive, equal and high-quality education.

European and international exchange as well as transnational mobility serve as the agency's most important tools.

Internationalisation and the support for transnational cooperation and mobility associated with it are valuable aspects in education, science and research.
High-quality education, science and research need an international orientation.
