

In your institution, what is the overarching institutional goal for Internationalisation? (you can also say "don't know", "unsure")

How well does this goal match with your personal goal, motivation, values?

