

Salzburg College Summer Sessions 2018

Salzburg College offers one 2-week and two 3-week Summer Sessions, and students may enroll in one, two or all three sessions. For one session, students take 1 course for 3 U.S. credits. The academic course work emphasizes the special opportunities provided by the Salzburg setting and offers an introduction to various aspects of Austrian and European culture. Experiential learning beyond the classroom is an important part of the academic program. This includes coordinated learning visits to historical sites, cultural institutions, professional organizations, artistic and musical events.
