A warm welcome to Vienna – Practicalities

Weather

The average temperature in Vienna in April is between 9°C and 17°C so it will be a surprise. It can be cold and rainy or warm spring weather. We advise you to be prepared for both.

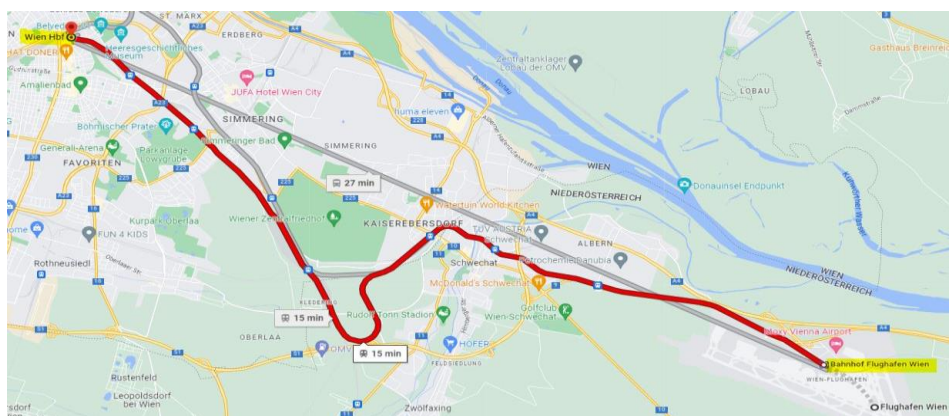

Vienna Airport --> City of Vienna / City of Vienna --> Vienna Airport

Vienna has a large airport (VIE) connecting many destinations with many airlines.

Going to the city centre by train, you can either fall for the little tourist trap CAT-Train, which takes you hardly quicker but much more expensive (19,92 EUR) to the central station OR you take a regional train (RJ, RJX or REX) for 4,30 EUR to the central station. There is also a bus every 30 min from the airport to Vienna central station: Bus VAL 1 (€ 9,50 one way, you can get the tickets directly from the driver or online, departing at XX:00 and XX:30).

If you happen to arrive very late or need to depart very early (when there are no train connections anymore/yet), you can exceptionally order an Airport Taxi (at least 24 in advance) for a fix price.

Please pay attention that you can't use the Vienna public transport ticket to and from the airport as the airport is outside of Vienna! You must buy your ticket to/from the airport either online at the ÖBB website or at a (also red) ÖBB ticket vending machine directly at the airport/at Vienna central station.

Vienna: Getting around

Public Transportation in Vienna is great. The Wiener Linien has closely timed schedule and hardly any delays, which makes getting around comfortable. The public transport tickets include transportation by bus, U-Bahn, S-Bahn and tram.

Network plan:

The easiest way to find your route online is on google maps.

For an offline version of the public transport network plan click here, you find them to download at the bottom of the page: <https://www.wienerlinien.at/fahrpl%C3%A4ne>

Purchasing Tickets:

You can purchase your tickets online.

We suggest buying a 48h or 72 h ticket (14,10 EUR / 17,10 EUR), depending on how long you are staying. Direct link to the 48h/72 h ticket: https://shop.wienmobil.at/products/244872_VIE

You can also purchase a paper ticket at one of these beautiful red ticket vending machines (photo).

Pay attention, that if you are travelling with a paper ticket, you need to stamp it in order to validate it in the blue ticket stampers before boarding. So, don't forget to validate your ticket!
